

Wisconsin Conservative News Outlets: Comments

JLB, March 27, 2022

For a smaller table with only the names and URLs of conservative news outlets, go to “Wisconsin Conservative News Outlets: Names and Contact.”

Name	Contact	Comments
Reality News	http://www.realitynewsmedia.com/news/ Steven Welcenbach, owner/editor, 414/491-3421 realitynewsmediagroup@yahoo.com	A conservative monthly newspaper produced by Wisconsin native and long-time conservative political activist Steve Welcenbach. It covers national as well as Wisconsin-specific news stories and prints columns and essays by many conservative and libertarian writers who are not already promoted by the major national think tanks. From the website: The content of Reality News includes articles from foreign and national sources as well as local writers and regular people in the TEA Party movement. Wisconsin state politics and interesting, contentious county and city issues get lots of coverage as well. Besides the dissemination of high level information, Reality News attempts to provide a forum outside of the internet for conservative minded people to interact with each other in two very important ways; 1) to allow the voices and opinions of TEA Party people to be heard through articles and letters submitted to and published in Reality News, 2) for people to publically proclaim their support of the conservative viewpoint as a sponsor and/or advertiser so these like-minded people can support each other in their business dealings as well as their political activism. This mutual support of conservatives amongst themselves I feel will be the greatest factor in determining how successful our movement becomes.”
Regular Joe Show	http://www.regjoeshow.com/ Joe Giganti, Host (920) 435-3771, x TBD – Office (920) 406-1360 Call-In Line (888) 455-1360 Call-In Line regular.joe@mwcradio.com To share a story, email with SHOW PREP in the subject line	Hosts a talk radio show, 2 hours a day in the mornings. WTAQ 97.5; WHBL, 101.5; WSAU, 99.9. 9:00 a.m. – 11:00 a.m. “Your home for consistent conservatism without apology! Reasoned, mature and in-depth, host Joe Giganti digs deep to expose the facts about what’s really going on and how to be a force for truth, justice, and, yes, the American way. Politics, culture, sports, entertainment...there are no safe spaces in this discussion!” On Feb. 25, 2022, he MCed the Republican Party of Sheboygan County’s Lincoln-Reagan Dinner. He spoke at a Kyle Yudes fundraiser on Feb. 18. He recommends conservative candidates on his website... not many of them, and not sure where he gets his suggestions.

	To book Joe, email requests with BOOKING in the subject line
The Center Square - Wisconsin	https://www.thecentersquare.com/  https://www.thecentersquare.com/wisconsin/ Franklin News Foundation  20 North Clark Street #3300  Chicago, IL 60602 Chris Krug , publisher,  ckrug@franklinnews.org Dan McCaleb , executive editor,  dmccaleb@thecentersquare.com  (779) 220-0259 Jason Schaumburg , managing editor,  jschaumburg@thecentersquare.com	Outstanding source of Wisconsin and national news and conservative commentary. Free daily emails. Formerly known as Watchdog.org, “The Center Square was launched in May 2019 to fulfill the need for high-quality statehouse and statewide news across the United States. The focus of our work is state- and local-level government and economic reporting. A taxpayer sensibility distinguishes our work from other coverage of state and local issues. As a result of this approach, our readers are better informed about the focus of state and local government and its cost to the citizens whose tax dollars fund governmental decisions. “The Center Square is staffed by editors and reporters with extensive professional journalism experience. We engage readers with essential news, data and analysis – delivered with velocity, frequency and consistency. “We distribute our journalism through three main channels at no cost to our partners or readers: a newswire service to legacy publishers and broadcasters, TheCenterSquare.com, and social media.” A project of the Franklin News Foundation, a 501(c)(3) headquartered in Chicago. Send feedback and news tips to info@franklinnews.org. The Franklin News Foundation was originally founded in 2009 and called The Franklin Center for Government and Public Integrity. It was launched by Eric O’Keefe and the Sam Adams Alliance and closely affiliated with the Club For Growth. John Tillman, president of the Illinois Policy Institute, is chair of the board. O’Keefe was one of the targets of the Democrat’s “John Doe” investigations.
Wisconsin Conservative Digest	http://wiconservativedigest.com/  info@wiconservativedigest.com	The WI Conservative Digest is a website featuring some original news reporting and reposts of conservative news and commentary on Wisconsin politics from other sources. Online subscriptions are free. “The Wisconsin Conservative Digest is Wisconsin’s home for educating people about Conservative ideals. Our founder, Bob Dohnal, was a clinical pharmacist by trade, but Bob always had a passion for Wisconsin politics. In 1988 he launched the Wisconsin Conservative Digest as a way to engage conservatives outside of the dominant media and has been doing so for decades.” The Digest is a division of the Wisconsin Conservative Leadership Coalition, Inc., a section

		501(c)(3) non-profit organization under the Internal Revenue Code (EIN 39-1305086) . Contributions to The Wisconsin Conservative Digest are tax deductible to the extent provided by law.
WisconsinEye Public Affairs Network	https://wiseye.org Jon Henkes President &amp; CEO jon.henkes@wiseye.org Rachel Sanders Director of Communications rachel.sanders@wiseye.org Matthew A. Peters Operations Manager &amp; Senior Technical Director matthew.peters@wiseye.org John Schroeder Director of Program Production john.schroeder@wiseye.org	An outstanding resource, though not run by conservatives. You can subscribe to free daily, weekly, and monthly reports on everything elected officials are doing and saying in Madison. The site films thousands of votes, debates, and hearings. WisconsinEye Public Affairs Network is the nation’s first and only independent non-government-funded State Capitol broadcast organization, operating much like C-SPAN at the national level. ... As viewer, you are present at the State Capitol event. You do not have to rely on sound bytes or someone’s interpretation. WisconsinEye brings the policy issues directly to citizens, unfiltered, complete. This is the cornerstone of our mission: “To inspire informed citizen participation in our representative democracy, across generations, throughout Wisconsin.” WisconsinEye began broadcasting in May 2007. Special thanks are directed to Wisconsin’s state elected officials who believe that citizen access to state proceedings is vital to the strength of our representative democracy. Since inception, WisconsinEye has produced more than 14,000 hours of State Capitol and related civic programming – all available from the WisconsinEye archive at wiseye.org
WisPolitics.com	www.wispolitics.com TCT Publishing c/o WisPolitics.com 14 W. Mifflin, Ste. 222 Madison, WI 53703 Phone: (608) 441-8418 General inquiries: info@wispolitics.com Jeff Mayers, President JR Ross, Editor David Wise, Content Manager Tim Haering, Contributing News Editor	Not a conservative group, but “The WisPolitics.com family of Web sites has established a respected brand in the power centers of the state and D.C. through comprehensive coverage of political, government and business news delivered in a multi-media fashion hitting Web, TV, and print.” It appears to be somewhat bipartisan, and so could be a good avenue for reporting and promoting conservative events and publications. It hosts https://www.battlegroundwisconsin.com/, a weekly e-newsletter and a weekly podcast titled “Rewind” that tracks political developments with some liberal bias. A recent edition of Battleground Wisconsin was reprinted verbatim in the March 23, 2022 edition of the Heart of the Valley Times-Villager. If you really want to get into the high weeds of politics in Madison... and see and hear what elected officials are probably seeing and hearing, this is a good place to go. Also a good way to reach elected officials and folks who are most politically active. Send press releases &amp; event information to: staff@wispolitics.com

	Adam Kelnhofer, WisPolitics.com Reporter Alex Moe WisBusiness.com Reporter	Send opinion content to: wisopinion@wispolitics.com
Wisconsin Right Now	https://www.wisconsinrightnow.com/ Jim Piwowarczyk, editor Jessica McBride, investigative journalist jim.wirightnow@gmail.com	An excellent website following Wisconsin and national news and commentary, great coverage of the Kyle Rittenhouse case, covers the release of research and news releases from WILL, MacIver, etc. “Wisconsin Right Now is a Wisconsin-focused news platform founded in 2020 that offers breaking news and some opinion, with an emphasis on Wisconsin. We are self-funded and, thus, an independent voice. Our mission is to give you the news you won’t see elsewhere.” Membership is $10/month, but a “subscription” is free. See https://www.buymeacoffee.com/wirightnow.