Possibly the most effective advocate for election integrity in Wisconsin, he has been conducting research, initiating and financing litigation, and networking with state and national leaders and elected officials. He retained Erick G. Kaardal, an attorney in private practice specializing in governmental relations as well as a special counsel for the Thomas More Society, to argue dozens of cases and recently hired Zak Niemierowicz to eventually take over the group.

Former State Rep. and 2022 candidate for governor
Phone: (262) 305-0713
Email: ramthun@hotmail.com
Website: <https://www.facebook.com/RepRamthun/>

Ramthun represented District 59 in the Wisconsin State Assembly from 2019 to 2023, resigned to run for the Republican nomination for Governor. He lost in the Republican primary on August 9, 2022. Election integrity was a key issue in his campaign. On November 3, 2022, he posted a well-reasoned news release on how Gov. Evers and the education establishment conspired to mislead the public and indoctrinate students in CRT. He has pledged to continue to speak out on the topic and press for reform. His Facebook page, where the November 3 release can be seen, is still active.

Ramthun is speaking at the “Greater Magistrates Tour” in Amery, Wisconsin, on May 6 organized by the Northwestern Wisconsin Patriots.

One of Wisconsin's three conservative think tanks. Judging by the website, they aren't doing anything on election integrity. Madison Hartmann appears to be in charge of community outreach and can be reached at madison@reforminggovernment.org.

Wait, Harry

President
H.O.T. Government
Telegram: <https://t.me/HOTWisconsin>
Website: <https://www.hotgovernment.com/>

From the website: "Our mission is to provide and support honest, open and transparent government with the intent of allowing citizens to monitor, assess, assist, and hold it accountable." Wait was charged with two misdemeanor counts of election fraud and two felony counts of identity theft for demonstrating how easy it was to get a ballot. He would face up to 13 years behind bars if convicted.

Wait is speaking at the "Greater Magistrates Tour" in Amery, Wisconsin, on May 6 organized by the Northwestern Wisconsin Patriots.

CPI produced the excellent Guidebook being used by Cleta Mitchell's Election Integrity Network. CPI was created by former Senator Jim DeMint after he was forced out as president of The Heritage Foundation. It is Wash DC focused: "CPI provides a platform whereby citizen leaders, scholars, and activists who are committed to conservative values and principles can be connected with the conservative movement, and with Congress, congressional staff, and organization leaders in Washington, D.C."

"In 2023, CPI launched the Conservative Partnership Academy, to expand and formalize its training offerings." De Mint is chair, Mark Meadows (who as chief of staff failed to purge the Trump administration of traitors and urged Trump not to contest the 2020 election... grr!) is "Senior Partner," Ed Corrigan is President and CEO.

ElectionEvidence.com

<https://electionevidence.com>

This website, along with "Here Is The Evidence," has compiled detailed databases of hundreds of examples of election fraud evidence, sortable by state.

Election Integrity Network

Website: www.whoscounting.us

"The Election Integrity Network is the national hub for communication and action for citizens nationwide who are committed to work to protect our American voting systems. Our network has created opportunities to develop and share research and information, develop policy proposals and create legal strategies. EIN's communication strategy includes regular coalition meetings in person and virtually, the weekly Election Integrity Network Gazette, media outreach, and the Who's Counting? With Cleta Mitchell podcast." See also Cleta Mitchell.

The EIN makes available a "Citizen's Guide to Building an Election Integrity Infrastructure," an excellent 24-page manual on how to understand, engage with, and then become part of the voting infrastructure of your community and state. (The Guide is actually a product of the Conservative Partnership Institute. See its entry.)

EIN also makes available a “Master Class in Election Integrity,” described as a “series of [19] short training videos walk through the Citizens Guide and provides a simple, step-by-step process for creating and maintaining citizen oversight of the election process.”

EIN also has a page called “Election Integrity Hot Spots” that focuses on challenges unique to some cities, counties, and states. Milwaukee is one of those “hot spots.”

US 2020 Election Fraud at a Glance

<https://electionfraud20.org/>

Collects and vets evidence of voter fraud during the 2020 election, organized state by state. On April 12, 2023, the website had this notice:

“This website summarizes the major findings in the 12–18 months following the Nov 2020 election. Due to health and time constraints of our original contributors and a lack of volunteers to replace them, we haven't been able to keep pace with the further reports and findings after May 2022, including the Nov 2022 Mid-Term Elections, during which, sadly, many of the same irregularities and potential fraud occurred. Instead, you can Find the latest updates on our Telegram channel which has more recent updates.”
